PEGGY PARSONS

A while back, the GCAA initiated a special fund to help Peggy Parsons with her crusade. About $600 was raised through donations by individuals. Peggy has informed us that she received the bank draft and deeply appreciates everyone's thoughtfulness. Additional checks have come in after the first bank draft was sent to Peggy so another draft will be sent to her in a few weeks. If anyone would like to contribute to help Peggy, make check payable to GCAA Peggy Parsons Fund c/o Gerald Adler. This is a tax deductible fund. Peggy is presently in Ethiopia and will travel to a few more countries before she completes her sojourn in January, 1977.

PANEL DISCUSSION ON LEARNING CENTER

A panel discussion on site selection for the new learning center will be held soon. If you feel strongly about where the learning center should or should not be built, contact either Mr. McGuinness or Ms. Smits. As of this writing, time and date of the panel discussion have not been decided but you can present your views now to the above persons.

WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON HANDICAPPED
